PLAINTIFF

v.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:14 CV 18-LG-JMR

RONALD WOODALL et al.

DEFENDANTS

ANSWER TO THE COURTS ORDER
DOCUMENT NUMBER ELEVEN (11)

CONESNOW, Thad Everett Delaughter, Plaintiff, pro-se. and answers this courts order doc. no. 11 and
for good cause will show the following to wit:

1. Whether he is claiming that the State of Mississippi discriminated against him based on his disability?

Answer: Thad Everett Delaughter has been physically disabled for the last 20 years, suffering from rheumatoid arthritis. In 1992 Delaughter had Bi-lateral hip replacement surgery, that is, of both hips.

Around the year 2000 Delaughter had both knees totally replaced. It's fair to say that due to a broken hip failure Delaughter is disabled because of. This hip replacement reconstructive surgery is expensive and the state of Mississippi is discriminating against Delaughter's hip replacement surgery being that this particular needed surgery is more costly than the average hernia. The state of Mississippi employs Wexford health by and thru the mississippi department of corrections. So if Delaughter needed a minor surgery wexford health would pay, but since his is so expensive, they discriminated against his type of injury being that its so costly.

Delaughter is a lifelong resident of the State of Mississippi and now incarcerated in their hands and the state owes him equal treatment for his injury, and is violative of the cruel and unusual punishment Amendment to allow Delaughter to live and suffer daily in constant pain.

Wherefore premisis, considered, Thad Everett Delaughter respectfully request and prays that this Honorable Court will accept his response allowing this cause of action to promptly move forward,

Respectfully submitted
1-8 Thad Delaughter
